Editor Enjoys Balmly Southern Weather

Mrs. Margaret Semmler left Saturday on the Rock Island "Imperial" to enjoy a week's vacation at Excelsior Springs, Mo. She is staying at the Elms and reports there is no snow there and the weather is warm and springlike.

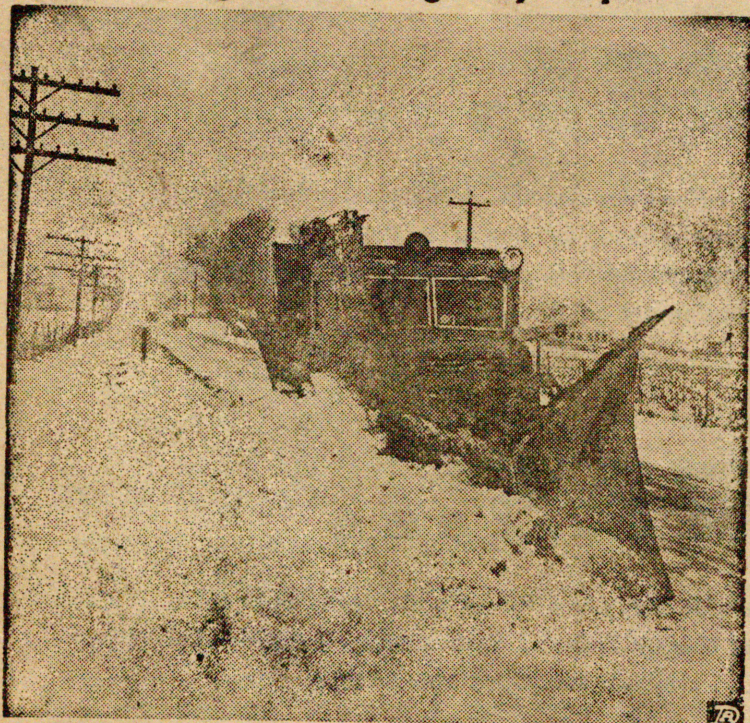

Quoting our editor, "Excelsior Springs is a beautiful city and the place is crowded; cars show that it draws people from all over the United States."

'It's Cold Outside'

About 1:30 New Year's morning a young couple approached the Palos Park Illinois Bell telephone office and stepped into the vestibule. Knocking on the inner door the man said that they wanted to get in to get warm as they were stranded; their car was stalled near the office. The night operator refused to open the door for them explaining that it is against company rules to admit anyone to the office. On hearing this the young man put his fist through the door glass, then let in himself and his companion.

The young man then told the operator to call a garage for a tow truck. She called the Oelke garage of Orland Park; then she put in a call to the police. The tow truck got there first and the young couple were on their way before the police arrived.

Keeping Illinois Highways Open

The task of keeping Illinois' 14,000-mile highway system open to travel in the face of winter weather hazards of ice and snow is one that is tackled annually by the State Division of Highways. Pictured above is a snowplow clearing a stretch of highway after a heavy snow fall.

SPRINGFIELD—Facilities of the Division of Highways have been mobilized to keep the 14,000-mile state highway system open to motor vehicle traffic during the winter months, according to Charles P. Casey, director of the State Department of Public Works and Buildings.

Maintenance crews have erected approximately 380 miles of snow fence in fields flanking highways at spots where troublesome drifting is most likely to occur, the department chief said.

In the meantime, highway section men of the ten district engineering offices throughout Illinois have overhauled snow removal equipment and stored stockpiles of abrasives at convenient locations along the roads.

As a result of these preparations, the department has in readiness a total of 1,000 trucks, equipped with snow plows, ranging from 1½ to 6 tons capacity, and in addition some 356 cinder spreaders. Accumulation of snow and ice removal chemicals and

Banks to Make Microfilm Records

The First National Bank of Blue Island announces that it is taking immediate steps to microfilm all of its essential records.

"In this way a duplicate set of bank's records will be prepared and stored for safekeeping against destruction through possible bombing," said Andrew L. McCord, president of the bank.

The duplicate set of records will be kept in a less populated location in Illinois.

This move, Mr. McCord points out, follows a similar policy by some larger loop banks to protect depositors and customers in the event warfare should bring about the destruction of important records.

Astronomer States Heavens in 1951 To Be 'Peaceful'

Although war news may break out on earth in 1951, the year will be a relatively peaceful one in the heavens.

A prominent Northwestern University astronomer said the "heavenly schedule" for the next year includes only two eclipses, both of the sun, the minimum number of eclipses that can occur in a year.

Kaj. Strand, professor of astronomy and director of Dearborn Observatory at Northwestern, reported that the first break in the sun's daily routine in 1951 will come March 7. When the eclipse is at its greatest phase, 95 per cent of the sun's disc will be covered.

"Such an eclipse," Prof. Strand said, "is called an annular eclipse and occurs when the earth passes just outside the moon's shadow."

He disclosed that on March 7 this phenomenon in the sky will be observed as a partial eclipse over most of the United States except in the northwestern part of the country. At Chicago, the eclipse will last for 25 minutes beginning at 4:18 p.m., Central Standard Time. There, only 7 percent of the sun's disc will be obscured.

Prof. Strand said the narrow path of the maximum shadow will begin east of New Zealand at sunrise, pass across the South Pacific ocean and end at sunset in the Caribbean.

Amateur astronomers will have to wait until Sept. 1 for the second annular eclipse. On this occasion, the narrow path of the maximum shadow will begin in North Carolina at sunrise, pass across the Atlantic ocean and Africa, and end at sunset near the island of Madagascar. At maximum, Prof. Strand said, 95 percent of the sun's disc will be covered.

The eclipse will be observed in its partial phase in Chicago when the sun rises at 5:16 a.m., Central Standard Time, with 71 percent eclipsed. The eclipse will end there at 6:05 a.m., Central Standard Time.

Elva Dedert Clarence W. Mack Beverly Ann Mose

NATIONAL honors for 1950 have been won by three Illinois 4-H Club members for outstanding work in the National Clothing, Frozen Foods and Tractor Maintenance programs. Each receives a $300 college scholarship. Brief outlines of their records follow.

Elva Dedert, 18, of Ursa, selected as one of the national winners in the 4-H Frozen Foods program, has made excellent use of her family's home freezer since purchased three years ago. She has frozen 1,953 pounds of meats and 659 quarts of vegetables and fruits which won "A" ratings in the county exhibits. She has also completed outstanding records in canning and clothing. Her award was provided by International Harvester.

Warren L. Wood, well known to voters of this community, was elected speaker of the Illinois House with a vote of 43 to 41, by the Republicans last Tuesday. Wood, whose home is in Plainfield, is an insurance man. He served as a navy lieutenant commander in World War II. He is starting his seventh two-year term in the legislature but was absent most of the time during the war.

When Gov. Stevenson opened the 67th session of the general assembly Wednesday, Wood took the rostrum but his election will have to be ratified by a 77 vote.

Wood defeated Reed F. Cutler, of Lewistown, on the fourth ballot. Cutler has served both as a majority and a minority leader during the 24 years that he has been a member of the House. Cutler moved at once to make Wood's selection unanimous. The final ballot on a recount showed the vote tied, 42 to 42, but a second recount again showed 43 to 41.

Balloting was secret and the final outcome of the voting was always in doubt with the man of long experience lined up against a new hand at the business, Wood, whose supporters emphasized that his election would make for "good public relations" inasmuch as he had never hooked up with the Gov. Small regime of earlier days.

The contest for the place as House speaker has been waged for many weeks and it is reported that much campaigning was carried on by phone and letters but when the outcome was known there was a surprising lack of bitterness.

Farm Journal Editor-in-chief Speaks

"If free men will devote half the energy to a freedom of offensive everywhere that Communists give to their cause, Communism will lose," writes Wheeler McMillen, editor-in-chief of the Farm Journal. "The theme of aggressive freedom should be the story of how liberty enables men to produce more and live better. A pair of shoes today costs 6 1-4 hours of work in free America, 25 1-2 hours in Socialist Britain, and 145 hours in Communist Russia. They are cheaper here because true freedom, true competition, and free consumer choice make them that way. Let's stop talking about vague and abstract 'democracy,' and explain freedom in terms of shoes and sugar!"

Those abundant shoes and sugar are a symbol of how well our free enterprise system serves the people. They are expensive and scarce in the Socialist and Communist countries because real competition, as we understand the word, is hardly existent. The government rations and fixes the price of almost everything in general use. In a free economy, every shoe factory tries to make a better and more reasonably priced product than the competitor in the next town. And every retail store tries to sell more of its shoes, by offering the consumer greater inducements in price and quality, than the other stores down the street.

A retail store, as a matter of fact, is a living example of what we call free enterprise. That is true whether it's small or large, whether it's part of a big chain system or a family operation. Products from every corner of the land fill its shelves. The consumer is offered the widest possible selection—and he makes his choice for himself, rather than taking what some politician decides he should have. And everyone lives and works under better conditions because of that fact.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Torrence

a Boy... a Bucket and a Bull Calf

Substituting a bucket for old bossy, at weaning time, usually sets the stage for a barnyard rodeo. The meekest little calf sees red when he's faced with a pail—bucks and bawls like a wild steer. No wonder farm boys dislike playing foster mother to a stubborn calf. It is one of the few tasks that are just as difficult and disagreeable as they were in grandpa's day.

A mechanical calf weaner may remain a dream of weary farm boys, but modern power machinery has already revolutionized most other farm jobs. This equipment saves much of the muscle work that farming used to require, and steals hours from the clock that can be invested in other projects or spent with the family. It reduces the weather hazard, cuts production costs—helps to make farming a more stable and profitable business.

No wonder so many farm boys are sticking with the land rather than seeking their fortunes in the city. They are discovering first-hand that the farm offers opportunities for profit and a satisfying way of life that few jobs in town can match. Yes, modern John Deere power equipment is doing a lot to keep our ambitious boys and girls on the farm where their leadership can help to realize our dream of a more productive agriculture, a stronger America, and a better world.

March of Dimes Huckleberry Finn

Larry McKenzie, 1951 March of Dimes Poster Child, sits in a wheat field and forgets he has polio—a smiling symbol of the thousands of children and adults who look to the March of Dimes for aid when polio strikes. The wheat field is on a farm near Larry's home on the shores of Lake Ontario. Twelve-year-old Larry was hit by polio in August of 1949 and was aided by Orleans County (N. Y.) Chapter of National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. His picture will be seen on thousands of posters throughout the nation during the 1951 March of Dimes against polio this January.

Jesus' New Year

Lesson for January 7, 1951

SCRIPTURE: Mark 1:1-20. DEVOTIONAL READING: Isaiah 42:1-9.

THERE is no room in this one thin column for a commentary on the whole Sunday school lesson each week. If the reader is interested, as it is hoped he will be, he will first study the Bible passages themselves, with whatever aids his own denomination furnishes him. The Sunday school teacher or Bible student who wishes to do really thorough work will need a Bible Dictionary and at least a one-volume commentary on the entire Bible. (Dummelow's [Macmillan Co.] and the Abingdon Commentary [Abingdon Press] are among the best of these.) As a background for the studies of the next three months, the student should read one or more good "Lives" of Christ. Write to your own church bookstore for suggestions.

When Is New Year's Day?
EVERY day is a New Year's Day for somebody. The legal holiday that goes by that name seldom comes at a real turning-point in any one's life.

The real occasion is when some momentous change occurs, so that after that day life never flows in its old channels. In this sense, a very important New Year's Day for Jesus was the day when he was baptized in the Jordan river.

Before that day he lived as a carpenter in one village; after that day, as a public man, indeed THE public Man of all times. The pattern of his life completely changed.

Decisions

NEW YEAR'S is a good time to review three things: your decisions, your life's work, and your friendships.

Have you put off a decision for a long time? Now is the time to face it. Have you been making "unfortunate" decisions, choices you regret? Now is a good time to look into these and see why you have been taking the wrong road too often. Have you any bed-rock principle on which you base all your decisions? — Jesus' New Year was marked by certain decisions made once and for all.

To begin with, there was his baptism. One thing it surely meant: Jesus that day decided deliberately to be counted among those who need repentance rather than among those who think they don't. Not everybody came down to the Jordan to be baptized. Some came only to criticize. Jesus sided with the sinners, not the critics. It was a life-long decision. He became known as the "Friend of sinners."

There were also the further decisions in the wild country where he went through his temptations. Each temptation faced Jesus with a choice; each time his choice was on God's side.

Life's Work

THERE is a great thrill in setting out on the work one is going to do for the rest of one's natural life. Out of the harbor traffic on to the open sea! Jesus now becomes a preacher, and this was his work for the rest of his life. His carpentry has long since mouldered to dust; his preaching and teaching are immortal.

But suppose Jesus had been a slipshod, inefficient, careless carpenter? Would he have ever become a great teacher and preacher? It is quite true, the products of his shop have vanished, but there was something taking shape in that shop which did not vanish: his character.

Your choice about your future and final life's work may still be in the future; your best work may not yet have been begun. But the way you do what you have to do, today, will help set the pattern for every choice and every work in your life.

Friendships

NEXT after Jesus' life-work came his choice of friends. No doubt he had known Simon and the others before, and Mark simply records in his abrupt way the climax of a long story, in telling how Jesus "called" them.

We cannot imagine Jesus without his disciples. It is not exaggeration to say that even the Son of God would have been a failure, as a man, had he won no friends. There would have been no Christian religion if Jesus had had no friends.

Around New Year's time it is well to ask oneself the question: Am I as careful in selecting my friends as Jesus was in selecting his?

REPORTS COOK CO. PROSPERITY ASSESS'R CLARK

Business and industrial prosperity in Chicago and Cook county continued through 1950, County Assessor John S. Clark today said in a review of his office's activities for the past 12 months.

Although personal property values here dropped 1.6 percent in 1950, this represents a general leveling off of inventories as reported by the city's and county's large businesses and industries, Clark stated.

No drop in the area's over all business health was noted, he said.

Personal property for the county in 1950 was valued at $1,475,243,959 as compared with $1,498,481,174 in 1949.

Complete figures for the 1950 real estate assessment for Chicago and Cook county will be announced next week, Clark said. But he predicted that they would show an increase over the 1949 evaluations established at $5,592,577,022 before equalization by the State Department of Revenue.

Clark predicted that the 1950 real estate assessment will show a more than 115 million dollar increase over the previous year before equalization by the State Revenue department's factor which, as of 1949, was 1.40.

The county's farmers again topped the state in production of truck and garden crops, Clark said. More than 227,000 acres growing 26 kinds of crops were operated in 3,387 farms last year.

This is a drop of 13,000 in farm land acres, he explained, which is accounted for by new real estate developments in the 30 county townships outside of Chicago, and the purchase of land by the County Highway department, the Forest Preserve and the O'Hare Airport.

Clark pointed out that 1951 will be a Quadrennial Real Estate Assessment year, and a busy one for his staff. Every four years, all land and buildings in the county are re-evaluated, and revisions in real property values are made, where necessary.

seeks to dissolve A&P Food Stores and similar actions recently brought against other corporations.

The resolution said, "such action may mean the loss of markets for some of our agricultural products, and, when an organization does not in any way sanction illegal practices it should not be destroyed by the government for merely being big business."

The stand taken by the Grange has been adopted, in various forms by more than five hundred associations and independent groups since the case against A&P was initiated more than a year ago.

"I have to sleep well every night to keep up with the Kuklapolitan Players... so I depend on my electric blanket for a comfortable eight hours. All I do is set the control for the temperature I want and the blanket automatically adjusts to the weather. I'm one of those 'cold-blooded' women who used to shiver even with six quilts over me, so I think it's wonderful that just one electric blanket keeps me so warm. I think I'll have to get electric blankets for Kukla and Ollie, too!"

25 OUT OF 25

Twenty-five out of 25 patients with severe cases of pneumonia were cured with the new earth-mold "wonder-drug" terramycin, according to the report of a group of four doctors at New York's Columbia-Presbyterian Hospital. The 100 per cent record was achieved when 18 cases of lobar pneumonia and 7 cases of virus pneumonia were treated with the newest discovery among the anti-biotic drugs.

The lab technician above is transferring a soil solution from a flask to a glass dish with mold food—first step in the long search for earth molds with curative value.

Terramycin was administered by mouth to all 25 patients. None had any complications, and all recovered rapidly and completely. In one case a 39-year-old postal worker, ill six days with virus pneumonia, saw his high fever disappear 36 hours after he was given terramycin. Another patient, dangerously ill with lobar pneumonia, was decidedly improved 12 hours after taking the earth-mold drug.

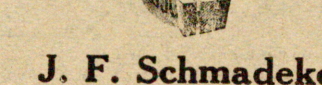

Over 200 leading clinics throughout the United States and abroad have reported terramycin's effectiveness against a total range of over 50 diseases.

State Library Has Unusual Exhibit

The Illinois State Library is currently featuring an exhibit of prints showing stained glass windows from some of the famous cathedrals of Europe, Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett, state librarian, said today.

Stained glass artistry from the 13th through the 16th centuries is shown with examples from the cathedrals of Milan, Chartres, Poitiers, St. Julien, Sens, Bourges and Amiens, plus modern painted windows from Westminster Abbey Cleveland's Fairmount Presbyterian church and the Chapel of St.
John the Divine in New York City,
Mr. Barrett said.

The exhibit is in the Museum room of the Archives building, on the first floor. The building is open until 5 pm. each day.

Done in brilliant reds, blues, greens, ambers and other colors, the scenes represent events in the life of Christ, the lives of the saints and episodes from the Old Testament.

In the Cathedral of Chartres, known as the "sanctuary of the medieval guilds," many of the windows were donated by the different guilds, and in one section of each window the work of the donating guild is shown. Among those represented are fur merchants, smiths and vintners.

The Westminster Abbey window shown is from the Nurses Memorial Chapel, which was opened by the Queen just in November. It is the work of Hugo Easton, and shows the Virgin and Child, St.
Luke, a kneeling nurse and the badges of nursing services, arms of the dominions and names of colonies from which nurses came.

The window from Fairmount Presbyterian church in Cleveland was done by Joep Nicolas, who came to America from Holland just before the war. It represents Palm Sunday, the Last Supper, the Crucifixion and the Resurrection.
